

SIMPLE AND UNCOMPLICATED

Aseptic valve units ex works

GEA ASEPTOMAG OFFERS YOU THE COMPLETE SOLUTION

Do you want to continue to be productive without hindrance and save yourself stress and effort?

An aseptic process subassembly is an individual solution tailored to your needs. It is designed exactly and pre-assembled in our factory according to your process requirements.

Complete means for us:

Pre-assembled valve units are available in any required size, including all associated lines and connections.

What we can do for you:

Customer service

Project planning

Design in 3D

Production

Support

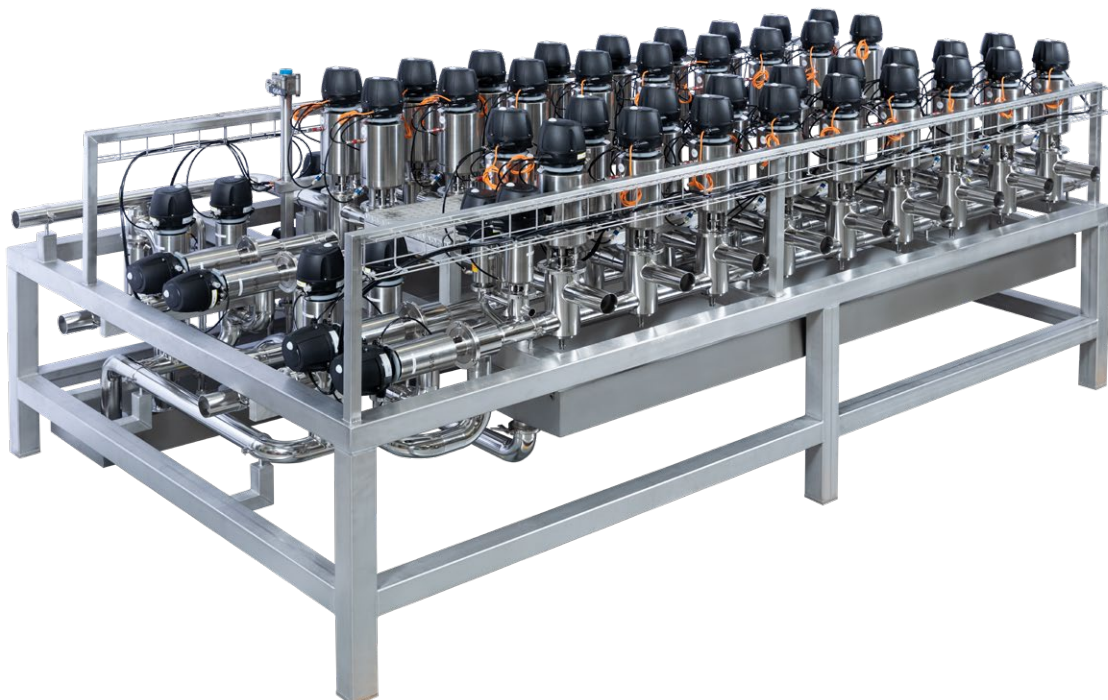

With more than 30 years of experience in valve unit construction we pay attention to:

- Consistently aseptic design
- Easy accessibility and operability
- Space-saving construction
- Fulfillment of your requirements

Your benefits:

- No space required on your premises during the construction phase
- Documentation according to your needs
- Stress-free installation according to the plug & play principle
- Including cabling/tubing on request, also I/O-tested
- FAT possible

GEA Aseptomag AG
Industrie Neuhof 28
3422 Kirchberg, Switzerland

Tel +41 34 4262929
gea.com/contact